

June 29, 1915

MRS. JESSIE BOWLES

Mrs. Jessie Bowles, wife of William Bowles, died very suddenly Wednesday evening, June 23d, at her country home, six miles west of Groton, of heart trouble. A year ago Mrs. Bowles suffered an attack of paralysis which affected her right side, and it is thought that she never fully recovered from that stroke.

Jessie Smith was born at Clinton, N. Y., Nov. 8, 1864. She came to South Dakota and settled west of Aberdeen.

She was married to William Bowles in September, 1906.

Mrs. Bowles joined the Baptist church at an early age and has been a member of that denomination ever since.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her loss, six step children, four boys and two girls.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. church Friday afternoon at two o'clock. The remains were laid to rest in Groton Union cemetery.